My dear Mr Ferrero

Mr Lewes has been lately employed in translating a Spanish drama by Dn José Echegaray a member of Cortes, and a man of great talents. It is greatly admired here, and it appeared to me that it would be well received in a London theatre. If you read Spanish, I will send you the work, and also the first act, when it is written out clearly, and readable. When you have read it, you will be able to judge whether any advantage may be obtained from it

As a literary man, I think you will be able, and I am sure willing to serve us in this matter.

With kindest remembrances to all the family

I remain dear Mr Forman

Yours very sincerely
